General Rules:

All uniform must be: -

- Clean and in good repair e.g. no jumpers with frayed sleeves, no trousers with ripped hems.
- Worn correctly - shirts must be tucked into waistbands, sleeves rolled down and ties should be worn out of shirts in the conventional manner.
- Top buttons must be kept fastened for boys.
- All uniform and equipment must be clearly marked.

Pupils must ensure that they are always smart in appearance by:

- Never wearing any make-up - if make-up is detected, pupils will be required to remove all traces.
- Never wearing nail varnish or nail extensions.
- Never wearing jewellery - this includes chains with Magen David symbols, Chai symbols etc. (There is no religious reason for wearing any jewellery during school times)
- Never wearing hats/caps - religious headwear should be worn (kippah is preferable) if not a kippah then plain black is acceptable.
- Girls and boys are permitted one plain stud in each ear lobe.
- No other piercings - e.g.: tongue, eyebrow, nose, etc.
- Plain wristwatches are permitted.
- Any pupil found wearing any item other than permitted jewellery will have it confiscated. The item will be locked in a security cupboard and will be returned on the final day of each half-term.
- Hair must be neat and tidy and well groomed and off the face.
- No hair colours, braids, extensions or tightly plaited dreadlock-type hairstyles.
- Boys' hairstyles must be sensible, for example, no shaving of heads or sideburns is permitted and hair must be worn above the collar.
- Girls must have their hair tied back in a neat pony tail with a black or gold bobble.

Failure to comply with any of these requirements will result in a verbal warning and parents/guardians will be contacted. Pupils will be expected to return to school next day having complied with these regulations

Items of value - Mobile Phones/Games Consoles

Mobile phones must be switched off during lessons and kept out of sight. Phones can ONLY be used during lunch break and during morning break. Infringements of this rule are as follows;

- First infringement will cause confiscation for one day
- Second infringement will cause confiscation for up to one week
- Third infringement could result in confiscation and in a much more severe punishment on the grounds of defiance.

This rule also applies to ipods, games consoles, MP3 players and similar items.

If valuable items have to be brought into school, eg, large amounts of money, then these can be placed at the office for safe keeping.

Bags:

Every student needs a strong, suitable bag to carry books, ipads, equipment, PE kit, etc.

Financial Help:

If your child is eligible for Free School Meals, you will also be eligible for support with uniform. Please speak to the Executive Headteacher for more details.
