

Admission appeal form

Please read the notes below before filling in this form.

You should fill in this form if you want to appeal because you have applied for and been refused an offer of a place and the admitting authority have offered you the right of appeal.

If you are appealing for more than one child, please ensure that you complete one form per child.

Please either e-mail your completed form to appeals@LJFS.org or post it to: Leeds Jewish Free School, Henry Cohen Campus, Wentworth Avenue, Leeds, LS17 7TN

We will send you more details about the appeal hearing once we have arranged a date.

PRIVACY NOTICE

Leeds Jewish Free School takes its obligations under the Data Protection legislation very seriously. The Admissions team collect information from you to assess your child’s eligibility for a school place. We collect your personal information in respect of admissions and appeals which is considered against the Council’s and school’s policies for admissions. Our service also needs to use sensitive personal data relating to you (also called “special category data”) such as religion and ethnic origin information in order to provide equality of opportunity or treatment.

Leeds Jewish Free School is the Data Controller for your information and our legal basis for processing the data is under a legal obligation where it is personal data (such as the School Admissions Regulations 2012 and the School Admissions Code 2014), and where we are processing special category information, under our obligations of substantial public interest. The data collected is required to ensure all children have a school place suitable to their age, ability and needs. Leeds Jewish Free School work to ensure that places are allocated and offered in a fair, transparent and open way.

In processing your application we may share information with Leeds City Council and also with other relevant organisations such as schools, NHS and the Police etc. We will also give some information about you to relevant government departments, such as the Department for Education etc, for statutory reporting purposes and in order to make the services of Leeds better. There may be circumstances where we need to use and share your information without your agreement, however this will only occur where we are legally required to do so.

Your personal data will be retained up to your child’s 25th birthday after which it will be confidentially destroyed. Any school admission appeal papers held by the School in respect of schools who conduct their own appeals will be held by the Council for 2 years and will be destroyed after this period.

You have rights in respect of the information we hold about you, including the right to ask for access to your information or to withdraw from this process. Objecting to Leeds Jewish Free School using your information in this way, would restrict the School’s assessment in giving proper consideration to your application and can result in the inability of schools offering a place/withdrawal of a place.

I certify that I have parental responsibility for the child named on page 1 and that the information given on this form is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that giving false or deliberately misleading information may result in the withdrawal of the offer of a school place.
