

Leeds Jewish Free School

Job Description

Post Title	Teacher of English
Accountable to:	Executive Headteacher
Location	Leeds Jewish Free School
Scale	MPS /UPS

Academy Vision

As a Jewish faith school our Jewish ethos is core to ensuring our students' success. We expect all our students to not only know our values but to live our values, whether it be in the relation of teachers to pupils, pupils to teachers, pupils to one another, as well as towards the outside world.

Tzedek: Integrity & respect for one another and our different beliefs

Chessed: Kindness, especially to the sensitive and the vulnerable

Mishpat: Deep respect towards the rules and laws of the school and society

Rachamim: Compassion & Forgiveness

This is an exciting opportunity to join a small community-based school in North Leeds. Leeds Jewish Free School offers pupils not only an outstanding academic education but also many opportunities to enjoy a superb range of extra-curricular activities in a nurturing, aspirational setting. The school is a thriving and friendly community of approximately 125 pupils aged 11-16 and shares a campus with an Early Years setting, an established primary school and a youth community hub.

The Leeds Jewish Free School is a fully inclusive school and welcomes applications from all ethnic and religious groups.

Purpose of the Post

This job description should be read alongside the range of duties of teachers set out in the annual School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document.

Teachers paid on the Upper Pay Range (UPS) have been assessed as 'highly competent' in all elements of the Teachers' Standards and their achievements and contribution to the Academy are expected to be substantial and sustained.

Members of staff should at all times work within the framework provided by the School's policy statements to fulfil the general aims and objectives of the School's Improvement Plan.

Developing Professional and Constructive Relationships

- Have high expectations of children and young people including a commitment to ensuring that they can achieve their full educational potential and to establishing fair, respectful, trusting supportive and constructive relationships with them.
- Communicate promptly and effectively with parents and carers, conveying timely and relevant information about attainment, objectives, progress and well-being.
- Have a commitment to collaboration and co-operative working.
- Work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues, managing their work where appropriate and sharing the development of effective practice with them.

Working within the Law and Frameworks

- Maintain an up-to-date knowledge and understanding of the professional duties of teachers and the statutory framework within which they work, and contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of the policies and practice of their workplace, including those designed to promote equality of opportunity.
- Know the current legal requirements, national policies and local guidance on the safeguarding and promotion of the well-being of children and young people, including reading and implementing the school's key safeguarding materials which include:
 - The School's Child Protection Policy,
 - The School's Behaviour policy
- Familiarise yourself with the content within Appendix A of: 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'
- Have responsibility for registering students and reporting any students missing following the School protocol
- Know how to identify potential child abuse and follow safeguarding procedures.
- Know how to identify and support children and young people whose progress, development or well-being is affected by changes or difficulties in their personal circumstances, and when to refer them to colleagues for special support.

Developing Practice

- Evaluate your performance and be committed to improving your practice through appropriate professional development (i.e. training, mentoring etc.)

- Have a creative and constructively critical approach towards innovation; being prepared to adapt your practice where benefits and improvements are identified.
- Review the effectiveness of your teaching and its impact on learners' progress, attainment and well-being refining approaches where necessary.

Professional Skills

- Plan for progression across the age and ability range they teach, designing effective learning sequences within lessons and across series of lessons informed by secure subject/curriculum knowledge.
- Adhere to departmental and school curriculum and examination rubric mapping and iterative assessment schedules
- Design opportunities for learners to develop their literacy, numeracy, ICT and thinking and learning skills appropriate within their phase and context.
- Teach challenging, well-organised lessons and sequences of lessons across the age and ability range in which you teach and:
 - Use an appropriate range of teaching strategies and resources, including e-learning, which meet learners' needs and take practical account of diversity and promote equality and inclusion.
 - Build on the prior knowledge and attainment of those you teach in order that learners meet learning objectives and make sustained progress
 - Develop concepts and processes which enable learners to apply new knowledge, understanding and skills.
 - Adapt your language to suit the learners you teach, introducing new ideas and concepts clearly, and using explanations, questions, discussions and plenaries effectively.
 - Embrace school professional development programme.
- Teach engaging and motivating lessons informed by well-grounded expectations of learners and designed to raise levels of attainment.
- Make effective use of an appropriate range of observation, assessment, monitoring and recording strategies as a basis for setting challenging learning objectives and monitoring learners' progress and levels of attainment.
- Provide learners, colleagues, and carers with timely, accurate and constructive feedback on learners' attainment, progress and areas of development.
- Provide learners with regular, sharp, diagnostic marking and feedback in line with the Academy's marking and feedback policy. Create opportunities for learners to respond to the feedback, which is then checked, acknowledging progress or addressing further misconceptions.

- Use the marking and feedback process to develop well informed strategic seating interaction plans which adhere to the School's strands of consistency
- Support and guide learners so that they can reflect on their learning, identify the progress they have made, set positive targets for improvement and become successful independent learners.
- Use assessment as part of their teaching to diagnose learners' needs, set realistic and challenging targets for improvement and plan future teaching.
- Establish a purposeful and safe learning environment, which complies with current legal requirements, national policies and guidance on the safeguarding and well-being of children and young people so that learners feel secure and sufficiently confident to make an active contribution to learning and to the Academy.
- Manage learners' behaviour constructively by establishing and maintaining a clear and positive framework for behaviour management, in line with the Academy's behaviour policy.
- Promote learners' self-control, independence and cooperation through developing their social, emotional and behavioural skills.

Professional Knowledge and Understanding

- Have a good, up-to-date working knowledge and understanding of a range of teaching and learning strategies and know how to use and adapt them, including how to personalise learning to provide opportunities for all learners to achieve their potential.
- Know the assessment requirements and arrangements for the subjects/curriculum areas you teach, including those relating to public examinations and qualifications.
- Know a range of approaches to assessment, including the importance of formative assessment.
- Know how to use local data to evaluate the effectiveness of your teaching, to monitor the progress of those you teach and to raise levels of attainment.
- Have a secure knowledge and understanding of subjects/curriculum areas and related pedagogy including the contribution that your subjects/curriculum areas can make cross-curricular learning; and recent relevant developments.
- Know and understand the relevant statutory and non-statutory curricula and frameworks, including those provided through the National Strategies, for your subjects/curriculum areas and other relevant initiatives across the age and ability range they teach.
- Know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support teaching and wider professional activities.

- Understand how children and young people develop and how the progress, rate of development and well-being of learners are affected by a range of developmental, social, religious, ethnic, cultural and linguistic influences.
- Know how to make effective personalised provision for those you teach and how to take practical account of diversity and promote equality and inclusion in your teaching.
- Know when to draw on the expertise of colleagues, such as those with responsibility for the safeguarding of children and young people and special educational needs and disabilities, and to refer to sources of information, advice and support from external agencies.

Personal Responsibilities

- Hold positive values and attitudes adopt high standards of behaviour in your professional role.
- Carry out the duties and responsibilities of the post, in accordance with the Academy's Health and Safety Policy and relevant Health and Safety Guidance and Legislation.
- Take responsibility for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
- Use information technology systems as required to carry out the duties of the post in the most efficient and effective manner.
