Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, LJFS encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- communicating the concern or complaint in writing to Mrs Prity Hunjan, Exams Officer, indicating the details of the concern or complaint.

The Exams Officer will investigate accordingly and findings will be communicated back to the candidate/parent within an agreed timeframe, and a resolution proposed

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Mrs. P Hunjan, Exams Officer

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 2 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Complete a Complaints and Appeals Form, available from the Exams Officer
- Completed forms should be returned to the EHT Head of Centre

Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 working days

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of Centre, or a member of the Senior Leadership Team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome), will thoroughly investigate the complaint using all the available evidence and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- two working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- again, complete a Complaints and Appeal form and return to EHT, Head of Centre

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 2 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- the Chair of Governors (or a special committee of the Governing Board) for consideration

It will be the responsibility of The Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
